

CRITERIA FOR THE PRESENTATION OF PROJECTS

1. The projects should help to promote the neediest peasants, indigenous peoples and Afro-descendants in Latin America and the Caribbean.
2. The beneficiary communities should preferably be from the neediest non-urban sectors.
3. The projects will address the various aspects of the integral development of a community: health, housing, drinking water, community infrastructure, production and education in the faith.
4. The beneficiary communities will contribute with their own Resources: salaries, promoters, teachers, transportation, maintenance, food, land and, as far as possible, technicians.
5. The projects should be part of a process that the community is experiencing, not the fruit of improvisation.
6. Projects should be planned, executed and evaluated with the participation of the community itself.
7. Projects must be accompanied by a letter with the endorsement of the Bishop of the jurisdiction in which the project will be executed. In this letter you should be informed, if applicable, about any other aid institution that is supporting the same project.
8. For construction projects intended for community services, the land must be owned by the Church and it is required to attach a copy or certificate of the property title.
9. The projects must be supported with: budgets and quotes or proformas of the resources requested from the Foundation.
10. The maximum contribution that the Populorum Progressio Foundation grants to each project is twenty-five thousand US dollars (US $ 25,000).
11. The aid granted by the Populorum Progressio Foundation is made by way of donation. It is laudable, whenever possible, to create revolving funds of its own, as some beneficiaries have done.

12. The projects are studied and approved by the Board of Directors that meets once every year (in June).
13. Projects must be submitted to the Secretary of the Board of Directors in Bogotá - Colombia, before March 31.
14. Projects of ecclesiastical circumscriptions or institutions that are not up to date in the presentation of the reports of projects previously financed by the Foundation will not be taken into account.
15. Once the project is executed, the person responsible for it must send a report, which must include a copy of the invoices and photographs (which could be published by the Foundation - JPG format).
16. At the end of the execution of the project, a plaque should be placed to remind that the work has been possible thanks to the help of the Holy Father, through the Populorum Progressio Foundation (This plaque is provided by the Foundation).
